

CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY OF FLORIDA

CHIEF PHILANTHROPY OFFICER

Winter Park, FL

Children's Home Society of Florida (CHS) is the largest private provider of child and family services in Florida. With an annual operating budget of over $106 million and more than 1,900 employees, this 108-year old agency serves nearly 100,000 children and families throughout the state every year. The Board of Directors of the Children's Home Society envisions the organization as a state and national leader in providing high quality community-based solutions to meet the needs of individuals, families and communities.

The primary focus and objective of the Chief Philanthropy Officer is to build statewide capacity for fundraising success, secure major and planned gifts and achieve CHS endowment goals. The position will advance philanthropy statewide through the 14 operating Divisions and the CHS Foundation. The position will ensure effective delivery of CHS's message and will develop and implement strategies that will increase major individual, corporate, foundation and endowment income.

We seek a seasoned development executive whose track record in building, leading and managing a high-level development program has been highlighted by the successful participation of key volunteers and the development of high performing staff teams. A proven ability to work and lead in a highly collegial manner within a complex organizational culture is also required. A performance-based management approach is desired tempered by an enabling style of staff development and coordination along with an ability to promote and maintain an innovative and caring work environment.

The ideal candidate will have at least 10 years of fundraising management and leadership experience. A bachelor's degree from a four-year college or university is required; a graduate degree is preferred as is the CFRE accreditation. Please submit a current resume and letter of interest to Kittleman & Associates at our confidential address at resumes@kittleman.net. For more information, please go to www.chsfl.org.
